

Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminology
Faculty of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences

DATE: January 31, 2019

Sessional/Overload Course Offerings

The Department intends to offer the following courses on a sessional or overload basis subject to final budgetary approval and sufficient enrollment during
Interession/Summer Session 2019 SEMESTER

In accordance with Article 54 of the 2017-2021 Faculty Association Collective Agreement, the Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminology invites applications from qualified individuals interested in teaching the following courses during the Winter Semester:

(All advertised courses are subject to change, sufficient enrolment, and budgetary approval)
(Listed class times may change due to unforeseen circumstances)

Interession/Summer Session 2019 - for undergraduate course descriptions go to <http://web4.uwindsor.ca/units/registrar/calendars/undergraduate/cur.nsf/0/fd0131a9051df41c85257364004edcf8!OpenDocument>

INTERSESSION 2019

SACR2600 (01) Introduction to Criminology	Tuesday & Thursday	4:00 – 6:50 p.m.
SACR3080 (01) Intermediate Statistics and lab	Monday & Wednesday	1:00 – 3:50 p.m.

SUMMER 2019

SACR3620 (01) Victimology	Tuesday & Thursday	4:00 – 6:50 p.m.
----------------------------------	-------------------------------	-------------------------

Please indicate the course(s) listed above you wish to be considered to teach with your application.

New Applications are required to include information on:

- Letter of application, including statement of citizenship/immigration status
- A current curriculum vitae (for the Faculty Association template go to <http://www.wufa.ca/?q=node/398>)
- A statement of teaching philosophy and interests (maximum of 250 words)
- Two (2) letters of reference
- Evidence of qualifications (i.e. transcripts, certification of degrees, courses taken, dissertation and thesis topic, etc.)
- Evidence of successful teaching (i.e. official SETs or equivalent for all courses taught)
- Evidence of GA/TA supervision
- a brief statement that explains how the applicant's teaching and research background prepares her/him to teach this particular course.

All other candidates who have previously taught at the University of Windsor are strongly encouraged to provide an updated curriculum vitae. To ensure a complete application, Sessional Instructors are encouraged to verify that your materials are in your file.

We encourage applicants to indicate which courses they are interested in teaching to avoid being considered for courses they are not interested in teaching.

Please Note: The Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminology does not have SET scores for candidates who have not taught 48/49 courses.

Applications must be sent electronically to SACAPPOINTMENTS@uwindsor.ca

Address applications to:

Dr. Amy Fitzgerald, Acting AAU Head
Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminology,
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences,
University of Windsor,
Windsor, ON N9B 3P4.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF APPLICATIONS:

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 4:30 PM

The University of Windsor is committed to equity in its academic policies, practices, and programs; supports diversity in its teaching, learning, and work environments; and ensures that applications from members of traditionally marginalized groups are seriously considered under its employment equity policy. Those who would contribute to the further diversification of the University's professional staff include, but are not limited to, women, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities, and members of sexual minority groups. The University of Windsor invites you to apply to its welcoming community and to self-identify as a member of one of these groups. International candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.