School of Creative Arts
Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Sessional/Overload Course Offerings

The School of Creative Arts intends to offer the following course(s) during the 2020 Inter/Summer Semester

In accordance with Article 54 of the 2017-21 Faculty Association Collective Agreement, the School of Creative Arts invites applications from qualified individuals interested in teaching the following course(s) during the 2020 Inter/Summer Semester.

VSAR 3850 Green Corridor

Tuesdays: 2:00-5:00 pm

A cross-disciplinary course that investigates and proposes various strategies for the creation and realization of public environmentally-aware art projects. Course work contributes to the creation of a City of Windsor/University of Windsor Green Corridor. Projects are generated in conjunction with community-based research and involvement with special interest groups. Students will be involved in the research and development of concepts evolving from discussions and participation in series of lecture/seminars. Areas of investigation during the course will include environmental study and impact, the social and political functions of public art in contemporary culture, the public creative process, the importance of public education in the development of community-based projects, marketing of public art and environmental awareness.

MACS 2450 Modern Art

DISTANCE EDUCATION

This course will introduce students to the development of modern art from the late nineteenth century to the middle of the twentieth century. The course will cover the relationship between the artistic movements of the early twentieth century and the cultural and political ideas that informed them. This course will trace the rise of abstraction in the early part of the twentieth century as well as subsequent developments in Dada and Surrealism.
