

Sessional/Overload Appointments
Revised April 23, 2019

Windsor Law intends to offer the following courses during the 2019- 2020 academic year. In accordance with Article 54 of the WUFA Collective Agreement, qualified candidates are invited to apply, by email (with letter of interest, CV and any other supporting materials) to:

Gemma Smyth (lawassociatedean@uwindsor.ca), Associate Dean (Academic), Faculty of Law. The deadline for receipt of applications is May 3rd , 2019.

2019-2020

Aboriginal Law
Access to Justice
Administrative Law
Advanced Family Law
Advanced Seminar in the Theory & Practice of Social Work
Advanced Taxation
Automobile Insurance Law
Bankruptcy Law
Business Agreements
Canadian & US Contract Law
Canadian & US Criminal Law
Canadian Civil Procedure
Canadian Infrastructure Law & Project Financing
Civil Procedure
Civil Trial Advocacy
Conflict Coaching for SRL's
Conflicts (Private International Law
Constitutional Law
Constitutional Litigation
Contract Drafting
Contracts Law
Corporate Finance
Criminal Advocacy
Criminal Law
Criminal Law and the Charter
Criminal Procedure
Criminal Trial Advocacy
Environmental Law

Estate Planning & Administration
Evidence (US Module)
Family Law
Forensic Science
Health Law in Practice
Income Taxation
Indigenous Legal Orders
Insurance Law
Labour Arbitration
Labour Law
Land Use Planning
Law and Social Work: Advanced Practice
Lawyer as Conflict Resolver
Legal Profession
Mental Health and the Law
Patent Law
Personal Employment
Professional Responsibility CDN & US
Real Estate/ Transfer of Land
Remedies
Securities Regulations
Sentencing
Torts
Torts (US Module)
Trusts
Wills and Succession